

It's time to sign up for Chat-n-Chew!

What is Chat-n-Chew?

It is a lunchtime book club that meets to discuss a previously assigned book.

Who is in Chat-n-Chew?

Any child in the third, fourth or fifth grade that is interested. It consists of small groups of students that meet with parent volunteers over lunch. We encourage everyone to join in on the fun. It's a special lunch treat four times a year.

When is Chat-n-Chew?

Groups meet during the student's normal lunch time. Groups will discuss one book a month, reading four fun books during the year. Groups meet in October, November, January and February. In February, groups will celebrate with a pizza party.

Where does Chat-n-Chew meet?

Groups meet in classrooms.

What do I need to do to be in Chat-n-Chew?

Return the sign-up sheet. Do the assigned reading and bring the books back when you're finished. If possible, bring lunch from home on your Chat-n-Chew days.

Is there any cost?

Technically, no. The PTA purchases Chat-n-Chew books that are loaned to the kids. We ask that you make sure your child returns their book when they are finished.
